

NEW GROOVES

For current and classic Australian designs, Tongue + Groove's expansive pop-up showroom, left, will open in Melbourne's Collingwood on Fridays and Saturdays for the rest of the year. Find an array of pendant lighting plus considered furniture and homewares by designers including Daniel Barbera, Volker Haug and Tim Fleming. 2 Johnston Street. Visit tongueandgroove.com.au.

Popping up in the heart of The Rocks in Sydney until December is a showroom-cum-studio, this picture, from Sydney designers Trent Jansen (left) and Henry Wilson. The heritage space will house their objects alongside their edit of other young designers' work. Open Wednesday to Sunday at 47 George Street. therockspopup.tumblr.com.

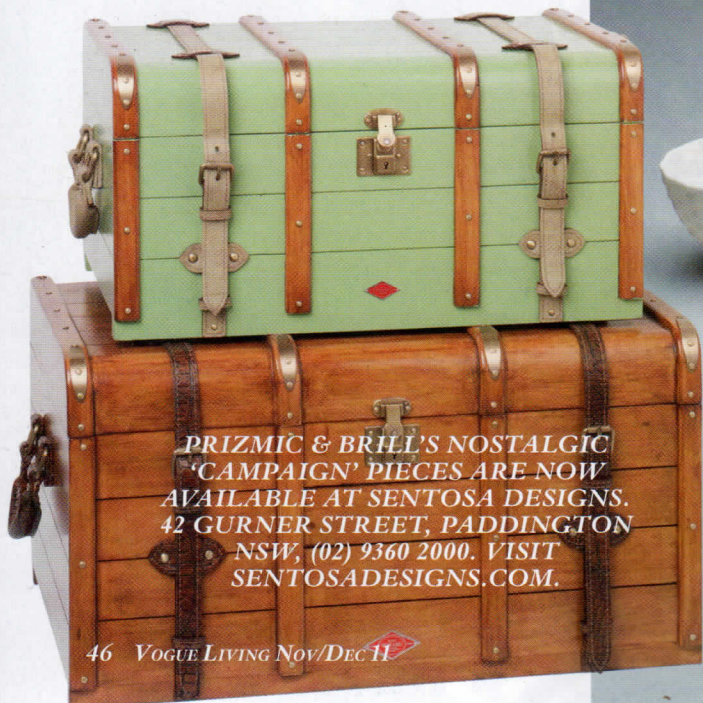

TAKING STOCK

From rare classics to cutting edge, inventive pieces are filling the stores.

THE REGAL 'SORENTO' FABRIC ON KING FURNITURE'S 'CAROUSEL' SOFA TURNS UP THE LUXURY ON THE MODULAR DESIGN, FROM $5100. VISIT KINGFURNITURE.COM.

PRIZMIC & BRILL'S NOSTALGIC 'CAMPAIGN' PIECES ARE NOW AVAILABLE AT SENTOSA DESIGNS, 42 GURNER STREET, PADDINGTON NSW, (02) 9360 2000. VISIT SENTOSADESIGNS.COM.

BOWLED OVER

Pieces of Porcelain is a new branch of The Mod Collective, run by Melbourne designer and ceramicist Valissa Butterworth, who launched her POP tableware at July's Design:Made:Trade to overwhelming interest. Having produced custom three-dimensional feature walls from polyurethane sheets, Butterworth tried a similar technique with design software that enables patterns to be printed in 3D, creating a tactile, user-friendly range of plates, bowls and beakers. Visit themodcollective.com.au.